Martinsville City Public Schools (MCPS) engages students through relevant, hands-on learning experiences and programs that have attracted both state and national attention. A rich diversity of extracurricular activities, from robotics and Odyssey of the Mind to athletics and the Performing Arts Academy, ensures students have meaningful experiences both within and outside of the classroom. As an AVID-certified district, MCPS has college-ready initiatives in place division-wide to prepare students who wish to continue their education while our CTE courses offer the skills and credentials needed to enter the workforce after graduation. With a commitment to curiosity, critical thinking, and community connection, MCPS gives students the tools to reach their full potential.

Henry County Public Schools (HCPS) provides its diverse community of learners with meaningful educational experiences that prepare them for a successful future. The division's work to support student success has fostered a variety of opportunities for students to partner with community businesses and organizations, enriching the school community experience for all involved. The technology-rich division has been nationally recognized for its green practices and is the first in the state to offer New Tech Academies and STEMformation. Additionally, the division's Career Academy is equipping students with work-ready skills as they prepare for the future.

Carlisle is an independent college preparatory school serving students from Martinsville-Henry County, Danville, Pittsylvania County, Eden, Rockingham County, Franklin County, and the surrounding areas. Carlisle provides a school environment that promotes excellence in all aspects of a child's development: academics, sports, character building, intellect and leadership. Instruction is personalized, and small class sizes enable students to reach their intellectual and creative potential. The cost is affordable and is determined using a Flexible Tuition Rate based on the parent's income and the child's grade level.
